Have you considered leaving a legacy?

You can ensure that the Anglican Church of Canada will be there for your children and grandchildren—your gift through the Anglican Foundation will ensure a strong future that lives on after death.

Create a positive legacy

WHY?

- Leaving a legacy offers powerful comfort as the end of life approaches.
- Leaving a legacy provides a way to ensure your continuing presence in the world and to leave something meaningful behind.
- Leaving a legacy ensures that the impact and influence of your life lives on to benefit others.

HOW?

- Designating a bequest in your will is easy to do and reduces taxes on your estate's final tax return.
- When a registered charitable organization is included in your will, there is no cost to you during your lifetime.
