

CRITERIA FOR CAUCTF GRANTS TO BENEFIT INDIGENOUS PEOPLE WITHIN CANADA

1. Programs must have been initiated by an indigenous community or organization, and involve indigenous people in their development, planning, and implementation.
2. Programs must “benefit aboriginal peoples within Canada” (CAUCTF, p. 2).
3. Funds are for programs only and building projects will not be considered.
4. Awards are for new programs and not for programs that have already taken place.
5. Grants will not be made to individuals, but applications will be considered that include assistance to individuals, such as travel grants.
6. Application deadlines each year are April 1 and September 1.
7. Supporting documents:
 - Program description, including involvement of Indigenous people in program development, planning, and implementation.
 - Program budget, including a breakdown of the total cost of the program and funding from other sources.
 - Letter of endorsement from Diocesan Bishop, General Secretary, or the National Indigenous Bishop.
